unmended fences

cold morning moon
a speck of blood
in the yolk

controlled burn
the intensity
of this hug

ragged breath sounds—
only blue sky pieces
left to do

nursing home
a pair of doves lightly
in the blossoming cherry

applying lip liner—
what I practice
not saying

nothing to see here
my life
in concentric circles

bud bursting at the seams of reality

fall colors
the path
with benches
